ILLUSTRATION

I am a freelance illustrator published by British Vogue, Cambridge University Press and Riverside Architectural Press. I am proficient in Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Rhino 6 and Grasshopper, as well as hand illustration techniques including watercolours, inks, oil paintings and acrylics.

My work draws influence from fluid dynamic paintings and kinetic sculptures, investigating the dialogue between organic and mathematical forms. The aim is to evoke a feeling of constant motion in my illustrations, evolving from moment to moment like trails of smoke.

CE VIEUX BOUGRE NE PERD RIEN POUR ATTENDRE!

C'est compris.

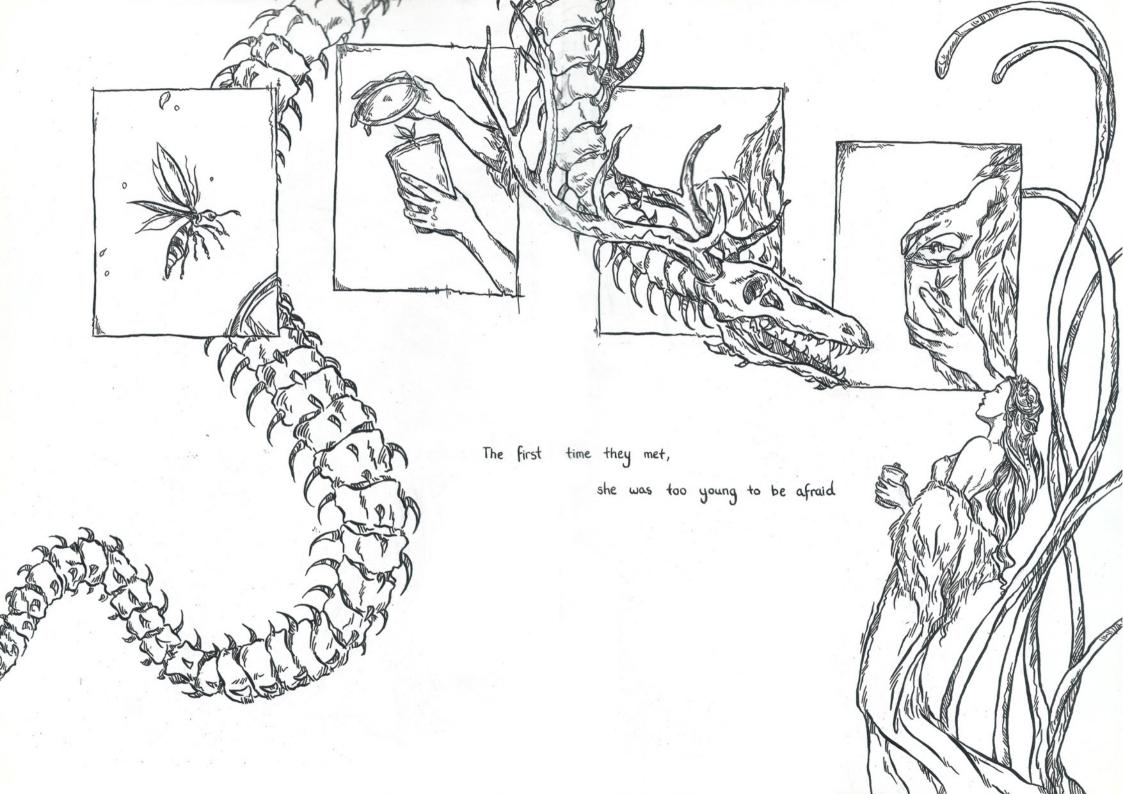

Merci.
